U19 Boys Team Announced to play National Interprovincial Boys Championship

Wellington Golf are pleased to announce their team to compete at the National Interprovincial Boys Championship in Waikato, October 3rd to October 6th.

This event is a team's match play format, the teams comprising of four players who are under 19 and two players who are under 16. The teams will play the other provinces in their pool, match play off the stick, with the winner of each pool contesting the championship final

The team is lead by the well performed Jack Clout and in the two U16 players, Trey Shedlock and Harry Allardyce the team has the recent U19 Wellington Match play Champion and runner up.

Convener of Selectors John Spraggs has high hopes for this team's chances. The core of the team has good experience through the regions events and interclub competitions and has achieved good results against Hawkes Bay, Manawatu/Wanganui and Auckland junior teams this year. 2017 is Wellington's debut at the highly ranked event. Their pool contains Auckland, Nth Harbour, Otago, Hawkes Bay and Manawatu/Wanganui.

Spraggs knows these young men will be honoured to represent the province at the National Interprovincial, which will be held at the Cambridge course in Waikato, and feels they will acquit themselves well.

The team is

Jack Clout	BFHGC
Jordan Burgess	BFHGC
Thomas Woods	Miramar
George Barralet	Miramar
Trey Shedlock	Titahi Bay
Harry Allardyce	Shandon
