2019 Men's Interprovincial Team Announced

Wellington Golf are pleased to announce their team to compete at New Zealand Golf's, Men's National Interprovincial Championship at Hastings Golf Club's Bridge Pa course, from November 26th to November 30th.

A new look team in terms of this event, has been named after the Men's side completed a successful outing in the Shand quadrangular, accounting for Manawatu/Wanganui, Hawkes Bay and Taranaki in winning the title, and completion of the Wellington Matchplay Championship.

The 6 players travelling to the Hawkes will be captained by NZ Representative Kerry Mountcastle, have the experienced Elton Nicholson and Andrew Drummond in the group and new comers Thomas Woods, Jayden Ford and Sam Marsters.

The WGI Board, WGI Match Committee and WGI Selection panel, offers all the players congratulations on being selected, and is excited for the group as they look to the event on ones of NZ's great courses – sure to be superb weather, top class greens and super scoring at this time of the year.
