2020 Women's Interprovincial Team Announced

Wellington Golf are pleased to announce their team to compete at New Zealand Golf's National Interprovincial Championship at the Akarana Golf Club in Auckland from Tuesday December 1st to Saturday December 5th.

The Auckland course is sure to provide a great team's matchplay venue for New Zealand's premier event, a fitting end to the golfing year for 2020. Having been an event host on the Charles Tour for several years, the Akarana course and club will provide a first class tournament.

A youthful looking team with NZ OOM no.1 Darae Chung at the top of the order, the team offers a view into the future of the district's Women's teams.

The WGI Board, WGI Match Committee and WGI Selection panel, offers all the players congratulations on being selected, and is excited for the group as they look to represent their province on the big stage.
